Gentlemen - On my return to the City I learned that you had not called at my office on Saturday, as you expected, to learn my answer to your offer for the Greek Coins

I left a note for you, in case you called, to be delivered by one of the office boys -

I thank you for your offer of $50.00 for these four pieces, but I do not care to part with them at that price.

I think I purchased these very pieces of you a number of years ago & if I remember correctly, at the price I now ask - If the price of coins has risen as you tell me they ought to be worth the same now -

If you want to take the Stock Lot at $90 in part pay for Books at $140 I will do that, otherwise kindly return the same by Registered post. Yours Sincerely

Dear Sirs I enclose check for my purchase at the Hexsee Sale & also return the Marcana, with thanks. I already have several specimens of Marcana, & one or more much finer than this. I was willing to purchase it only in case it went at a low price
